

The Grant County Art Guild was formed in 1968 to provide a bond between people sharing the same common interest in fine arts and crafts. The gallery is open from Friday through Sunday each week (and major holidays) from April-end through early October. Members of the Art Guild are present from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to assist visitors and provide information about the historic building.

Annual Purchase Prize Show
Last weekend of September and
First weekend of October

Directions

Follow New Mexico Highway 15 North out of Silver City to Pinos Altos.
Turn left at the fork (RV Park on the right), following the road as it curves, going 1 block past the Fort and turn left. The Gallery is at the end of the block on Golden Avenue.

The Grant County Art Guild was formed in 1968 to provide a bond between people sharing the same common interest in fine arts and crafts. The gallery is open from Friday through Sunday each week (and major holidays) from April-end through early October. Members of the Art Guild are present from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to assist visitors and provide information about the historic building.

Annual Purchase Prize Show
Last weekend of September and
First weekend of October

Directions

Follow New Mexico Highway 15 North out of Silver City to Pinos Altos.
Turn left at the fork (RV Park on the right), following the road as it curves, going 1 block past the Fort and turn left. The Gallery is at the end of the block on Golden Avenue.

The Grant County Art Guild was formed in 1968 to provide a bond between people sharing the same common interest in fine arts and crafts. The gallery is open from Friday through Sunday each week (and major holidays) from April-end through early October. Members of the Art Guild are present from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to assist visitors and provide information about the historic building.

Annual Purchase Prize Show
Last weekend of September and
First weekend of October

Directions

Follow New Mexico Highway 15 North out of Silver City to Pinos Altos.
Turn left at the fork (RV Park on the right), following the road as it curves, going 1 block past the Fort and turn left. The Gallery is at the end of the block on Golden Avenue.

Pinos Altos Art Gallery

Located in the Historic Hearst Church
14 Golden Avenue in Pinos Altos, New Mexico

Find us at www.gcag.org

OPEN LATE APRIL thru EARLY-OCTOBER
Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays
and Major Holidays
10am-4pm

Historic Hearst Church

History and art are combined in the setting of the Gold Avenue Methodist-Episcopal Church, known locally as the "Hearst Church". The adobe church is home to the Grant County Art Guild (GCAG). During the summer months, the church is transformed into an art gallery, featuring arts and crafts created by about 40 local artists.

Pinos Altos Art Gallery

Located in the Historic Hearst Church
14 Golden Avenue in Pinos Altos, New Mexico

Find us at www.gcag.org

OPEN LATE APRIL thru EARLY-OCTOBER
Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays
and Major Holidays
10am-4pm

Historic Hearst Church

History and art are combined in the setting of the Gold Avenue Methodist-Episcopal Church, known locally as the "Hearst Church". The adobe church is home to the Grant County Art Guild (GCAG). During the summer months, the church is transformed into an art gallery, featuring arts and crafts created by about 40 local artists.

Pinos Altos Art Gallery

Located in the Historic Hearst Church
14 Golden Avenue in Pinos Altos, New Mexico

Find us www.gcag.org

OPEN LATE APRIL thru EARLY-OCTOBER
Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays
and Major Holidays
10am-4pm

Historic Hearst Church

History and art are combined in the setting of the Gold Avenue Methodist-Episcopal Church, known locally as the "Hearst Church". The adobe church is home to the Grant County Art Guild (GCAG). During the summer months, the church is transformed into an art gallery, featuring arts and crafts created by about 40 local artists.